SPACE TALK

The Jagtap Residence in Bhugaon, Pune, is a space to check out, thanks to ID Sujata Chitalwala & Ar. Husain Jariwala of Designers Group. Completed in 2018, this 1,000 sq.m luxurious & stylish bungalow is a mix of elegance & luxury for an intergenerational family. The client, a family guy with a big circle of friends, wanted a chic home, clutter-free and great for functions.

This second home for the client had one brief – it should be ultra-luxurious and larger-than-life ecological retreat. He wanted to get the fusion of minimalism and regalism. When ▶ you enter the home, you feel the extravagance and grace. Different seating showcase contemporary sophistication throughout the living & connected dining area. There is a stunning skylight above the dining area. It adds an element of wonder.

You find an elegant vibe in the wall treatment fabricated with wooden louvres while entering the magnificent bedroom & powder room. This bedroom is for the grandparents. It reflects their choices in the interiors. There is a four-poster bed, a study and comfortable loungers since the users are into reading and have other requirements. The brick wallpaper & wooden flooring used in the design scheme matches the users grounded character & strong values. The washroom comes with an artificial green wall and a skylight.

You move next to the glamorous informal seating on the left of the entrance. There is a gleaming vibe thanks to the use of leather as an overall material palette. The wooden rafters serving as a backdrop give the space fluidity.

You move inside and find a double-height dining room on the right. It has a background wall with a flight of butterflies as the display. The blue textured wall exudes beautiful romance. ▶

You will also see a staircase on the left that takes you to the upper floor. An open-to-sky cantilevered passage on the first floor leads you to the home theatre cum family room that also works as a lounge room. There is also a 50 feet long balcony to relax and lets you see the pretty sights of the sunset.

The contour & landscape is such that the upstairs bedrooms include large projections. It creates a dialogue with the outdoors. The house has a character to it with comfort and warmth. There is a use of hi-tech materials and fascinating design concepts. It reflects the standards & expectations of the owners. The traditional colour palette and unique décor elements support everything.

The Jagtap Residence in Bhugaon, Pune, is a winner thanks to the efforts of ID Sujata Chitalwala & Ar. Husain Jariwala of Designers Group. ●
